

Youth Driven Cinema

Film Contest & Festival Entry Form

Deadline for Submission: March 19, 2018

DETAILS

- All Martin County public, private, or homeschooled k-12 students may enter.
- Entries must be under 3 minutes in length.
- Entries must incorporate 2018 Youth Driven Cinema theme, "Spread the Word, Florida's Ecosystems Need Our Help." Suggested topics, sample films, and other helpful information can be found on the Youth Driven Cinema website (www.youthdrivencinema.com).
- Entries must be uploaded as .mov, .mp4, or .wmv file formats.
- All entries must include a completed Entry Form with parent or guardian signatures for each participant.
- Entries must be uploaded through the Youth Driven Cinema website by March 19, 2018.

CATEGORIES

- Teams may be composed of 1-4 students for a traditional entry. There are three grade level categories: elementary, middle, and high school.
- There is also a special "School of Fish" category for films with more than four students. A video entered into the School of Fish category can only be entered for that division. A student can participate in the School of Fish category while also creating a second video to be entered into the traditional grade level divisions.
- All team members must be in same grade level category (elementary, middle school, high school), unless entry is into the "School of Fish" division.

MAIN CONTACT INFORMATION

Please select one group member as the main contact. Plenty of Fish entries may use their teacher's information.
